Museum communication and image with rentals

The Museum may announce the activity in its corresponding formats.

The Museum shall exercise control over the use of its corporate image. If the facade of the San Telmo Museum is used for publicity purposes, the price will be adjusted to such use, whether applied to admission price, cloister or church, courtyards, static or mobile advertising, etc.; the same shall apply to photography or filming.

Rental of any space in the Museum does not mean the image of the Museum can be used.

Permission must be granted from the Museum to photograph or record the San Telmo Museum and use the image for commercial purposes or group events.
